BAILEY FURNITURE CO.

WANTS "HUMAN" TUTORS.
CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—The Harvard Crimson recently said editorially: "In years gone by it was considered one of the essential privileges of a college education to become intimately acquainted with the men of learning of the time, and the homes of the professors used to be thronged continuously with groups of students. Of late years, however, there has been a gradual drifting apart, and the result is that the instructor has become to the student more and more of a speaking text book, rather than a human being whose friendship is to be cultivated."

MET in the MOVIES

By CLINTON PEDRICK.

Did you get a Christmas number of the Liberty Patter? The extra edition outlines many great events for next year.

Irving Cummings, the dare-devil of filmdom, lost part of his beautiful head of hair in the oil explosion shown this week in the "Diamond From the Sky" serial.

Appearing in Dustin Farnum's Palas-Paramount picture, "The Call of the Cumberland," is an old lady of 92, who never saw a theater or film until the day she was brought in an automobile from the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Charlotte Walker, a new Paramount flame, is after Blanche Sweet's hide. While she will have to go some, she is undeniably a winner in crook plays, one of which she appears in tomorrow at the Liberty, the feature being "Kindling," a drama by Charles Ken-

Many a large idea originates in a small head. Honolulu was one of the first to abolish its film-censor board. All cities have had them, but few now remain. Last week Los Angeles censors decided to disband, agreeing that the National Board of Censorship seal on films was sufficient to guarantee the moral for public presentation, and that the judgement of this national board was undoubtedly the best.

Laura Hope Crews, who makes her screen debut here in two weeks, in a Lasky-Belasco film, is recognized throughout America as one of Frohman's leaders on the speaking stage, and also in leads for Henry Miller in New York. Lasky has secured her for "The Fighting Hope," and is backed by Theodore Roberts, "the grand old man," and Cleo Ridgely. In this ideal introduction to the movies, Miss Crews has found her calling, and will remain with the Lasky Company for forthcoming productions.

From the watery deep to the fiery furnace! Charlotte Walker had some thrilling experiences in her second Lasky production, "Out of Darkness," to appear later on the Paramount list. Miss Walker, who for several years has been one of the Kiwi & Erlinger stars, and previously was a Belasco star, said that motion picture acting for a player from the legitimate stage means either an improved digestion or nervous prostration because of the physical demands of the photographic scenario. Two things Miss Walker, in common with many other persons, always has disliked, are deep-sea swimming and factory fires. In her new photo-play "Out of Darkness," she is the heroine of a thrilling deep-sea rescue, and the rescued near-victim of a fierce factory fire.

For the present the Pathé weekly news service pictures cannot be secured for Honolulu. It has been announced, however, that the Paramount Corporation is sending a series of "Paramount Travel Pictures," which include interesting events and native life in various sections of America, from Florida, south through Argentina, and including much of current interest in Panama. These pictures are an education, and should be followed closely. The first reel, to be presented here next Thursday, will show both land and birdseye hydroplane views of Palm Beach, Florida, life and current events there; the Florida rivers and orange groves, etc., and concludes with a comedy cartoon by C. K. MacCauley, formerly of the New York World. The Pathé Weekly will be resumed at an early date.

Marguerite Clark, who returned recently from Easton, Pa., where many scenes for the Famous-Players Film Co.'s "Still Waters" were taken, declares that she now understands where the circus recruits their tumblers and acrobats. "The babies are put to bed in circus trunks," she explains after having seen it done, "and I know if I had curled into knots in a little trunk when I was a child, I should have been a boneless marvel when I grew up." Clark, of Marguerite's time, while at Easton, was not spent in driving a mule for the picture "Still Waters." In fact the petite actress discovered another form of mule—the college freshman. Easton is the seat of Lafayette College, which has just opened its doors to the latest flock of hopefuls in search of liberal education. One of them, seeing a charming little figure ahead of him as he strolled along the street, quickened his pace and caught up to her. "Good morning, Haven't I seen you somewhere before?" he inquired, thereby showing his brilliant originality. "Yes, if you attend theaters," countered Miss Clark, and turned into her hotel, leaving a very foolish looking youth staring after her.

BOOKLET SHOWS RAPID GROWTH OF "Y" WORK

The Y. M. C. A. has issued a booklet to the members which covers statements for the month of November and the growth in different departments since 1912. Statistics show that the average daily attendance has increased in 1915, and the membership in November this year shows an increase of 139 over the same month in 1914. The attendance at the gymnasium has doubled since 1912 while the work in the Bible classes shows an increase of 400 per cent over 1912.

Snow colored uniforms will be used by the German troops in Russia this winter so as to be invisible. Trenches and supply carts will also be covered with white materials.

FRAZEE SUBMITS PLANS TO LIGHT BEACH PARKINGS

At the request of the supervisors, William L. Frazee, superintendent, last night submitted a report on the proposed lighting of Kalakaua avenue parking. The plan is considerably different from the one now in use on the completed parking.

Lights, according to Mr. Frazee's idea, should be placed in sets of two, each set to be in the middle of the parking rather than on alternate sides as the lights are now placed.

Considerable saving will be effected in the cost, according to the report, by adopting the new plan. The saving is shown as follows:

Present system: 97 one-light posts, $3,346.50; 7500 feet of steel taped cable, $1950; 97 concrete foundations, $291; labor, $125; shades, wire and fixtures, $291. Total, $6,003.50.

Proposed system: 60 two-light posts, $2,370; five one-light posts, $1017.50 for the section of work to be covered.

FUTURE LOOKS GOOD FOR SALE OF BONDS ON MANOA PROJECT

That the prospect is good for the sale of bonds to carry out the Manoa improvement project seems evident from several bond sales made in the city during the last few days. It is supposed that the Manoa bonds will bear 5 per cent interest, though the rate has to be fixed by the supervisors. One of the objections to the Manoa bonds is their indefinite date of redemption, as they have to be taken up by lot, and a purchaser is never quite sure just how long his money will be out on interest. The amount of the Manoa issue will be approximately $240,000.

TRUMPETER'S SCHOOL AT ARMORY EVERY TUESDAY

Trumpeters' school is being held at the National Guard Armory every Tuesday night at 7:30 under the direction of the chief musician. An effort is also being made to organize a five corps, with 10 fifers, and volunteers have been called for, several responding.

crete foundations, $195; labor, $100; globes, $113; globe holders, $84; Total, $4986. This makes a saving of $1017.50 for the section of work to be covered.

OPENING OF SOCIAL SEASON AT THE YOUNG

A program of vocal and instrumental music will be rendered this evening during the dinner hour in the rathskeller of the Alexander Young hotel.

After dinner (beginning at 9 o'clock) the concert, combined with dancing, will be continued on the roofgarden. The patrons of the hotel and local society people in general, tourists and officers of the army and navy and their ladies are cordially invited to attend.—Adv.

IDLE PLANTS RESUME.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Several big plants here that were idle before the war began are now working three shifts night and day, and in general there has been a great increase in industry. There have, however, been no advances in wages, although there is much more employment.

OLD CAMBRIDGE HAS ELEVEN THOUSAND AT FRONT FOR BRITAIN

LONDON, Eng.—Over 11,000 Cambridge men are fighting with the colors, according to the university's latest war list. Of these men 614 have been killed, 900 wounded and 123 missing or prisoners of war. Three have won the Victoria Cross, and others have received medals for distinguished conduct. Trinity heads the colleges with 2500 soldiers and Pembroke follows with 1052.

CORN SHOCKER INVENTION EARNS BROTHERS $500,000

MADISON, Wis.—The International Harvester Company will send a representative to Madison with a check for $500,000 in payment for one year of inventive work by three brothers, Andrew Kurth of this city, and William and Mathew Kurth of Waunakee. The brothers, after a year of work, successfully completed a new device for shocking corn with a grain binder.

The small steamship Toledo, which left Seattle two weeks ago for Mexico, via San Francisco, with a cargo of flour and lumber, is believed to have been lost, as nothing has been heard from her.

SUN LIFE TAKES OVER BUSINESS OF RIVAL FIRM

With assets amounting to $19,000,000 the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company of Toronto has been absorbed by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. The head office of the latter company is at Montreal. This agreement as to amalgamation is subject to the approval of the Canadian parliament, but according to Malcolm Macintyre, manager of the local office of the Sun Assurance Company, the approval is sure to be given. By the arrangement the Sun company reinsures all of the policies of the other organization.
